 - i. Medical Director – Training classes in the end of September on Albuterol for BLS. Warns EMS to be mindful because Law Enforcement has Body Cameras on and EMS can be Subpoena from those Body Cameras.
 - j. Assistant Medical Director – Has been able to ride quite a bit and is impressed by the level of compassion he has seen.
 - k. CHMC – No Report. Sodas, dinner trays, muffins are not for your taking. They are working on getting a fridge in the EMS room for EMS staff. Train the trainer discussion.
 - l. Calvert Emergency Communications – Not Present
 - m. Calvert County EMS Coordinator – 3rd dose being offered for those that are immunocompromised. Heather introduced the therapy dog. Provisional providers need to be converted by February 11, 2022. The provider needs to contact MIEMSS to find out what they need to do. Standby for the fair is on the website.

- n. Citizen Reps – Michelle Weems-No Report, Steve Scelzo (out of town he sent an email to be excused).
 - o. Chair of Chief's Council – Not Present
 - p. MIEMSS Rep – EMT's and CRT's can not give vaccinations. OA/QI Module recording is complete, they are working on putting them together. They have seen an increase in drop times. Volumes at urgent cares are increased.
 - q. Career EMS – Kenny Miller is Chief 20 and is here to help build a system.
 - r. Public Comment – Chris and Chief's Council got the Priority 2 issue straight from last month. Wants to look at Priority 3 calls on the 2nd unit being dispatched that it be a double dispatch to get assistance to the citizen quicker.
- XIII. Adjournment - Motion made by Paula Bailey and 2nd by Tessa Gunnell at 2017 hours
